

Spend five minutes scanning this two-pager to quickly get up to speed about state arts funding, networking with peers, useful NASAA resources and more. Report to Councils is designed to enhance your work as a state arts agency council or board member. Share it at your next council meeting!

Preview of FY2025 State Arts Funding

Check out NASAA's snapshot of the funding each state or jurisdictional arts agency expects to receive for fiscal year 2025. Our FY2025 State Arts Agency Legislative Appropriations Preview shows projected FY2025 funding as well as state per capita rankings. Appropriations to state arts agencies of $706.7 million for the year ahead represent an aggregate investment of $2.09 per capita. The preview report includes individual state per capita figures. You can learn more on the Funding page of NASAA's website.

See You at NASAA Assembly 2024!

Join your colleagues from state arts agencies around the nation for NASAA Assembly 2024! Here's why:

- Federal connections: Hear from National Endowment for the Arts Chair Maria Rosario Jackson and meet with other U.S. government agency officials to learn about cross-sector partnerships.
- Peer networking: Meet with other council/board members to discuss topics unique to your role as an arts leader.
- Tailored learning: Attend sessions designed to inform and energize your work—from advocacy to rural engagement to emergency preparedness—and more.
- Arts = strength: Immerse yourself in the culture and resilience Puerto Rico is known for.

Reserve your lodging and register online by midnight on October 4 (or register in person on site).

Especially for Council Members

Whether you are a new state arts agency council/board member or would like a refresher about the field, you can count on NASAA. We have been strengthening state arts agencies for 56 years! These resources were designed with you in mind:

- About State Arts Agencies: Discover what state and jurisdictional arts agencies do.
- Citizen Councils \(versus nonprofit boards\): Explore important distinctions between serving on a state arts agency council and a 501(c)(3) or corporate board.
- For Council Members: Get the basics on arts councils, advocacy, and how to stay informed and connected.
- The Federal-State Partnership in the Arts: Learn how this exemplary collaboration improves arts access for all.
- Advocacy resources—both state and federal—abound.
- Contact NASAA: We are here for you!

Strengthen NASAA, Strengthen Your Agency

NASAA is all about lifting up state arts agencies! We empower your agency with the research, advocacy and support you need to make the biggest impact in your state or jurisdiction. Individual contributions make a big difference—your support helps us expand our advocacy and provide high-quality learning opportunities. Find out how you can support NASAA and state arts agencies. Thank you.

NASAA

For questions or more information, contact Laura Smith, laura.smith@nasaa-arts.org

▲ www.nasaa-arts.org

@NASAA.Arts

@NASAA_Arts

LinkedIn