

PDI 2024 Pre-Viewing Materials

Leading into the PDI, the Arts Education Working Group encourages you to familiarize yourself with the organizations we will interact with during our time in San Juan. Click on the circles below to learn more about each organization or site. Some webpages below are presented in Spanish and can be translated in your browser.

Monday

Y no Había Luz
Offers immersive artistic experiences through workshops, theater, and visual arts focusing on awakening beauty and creativity.

Frido Vargas
No link. View on Instagram: @frido.vargas. Frido studied music engineering and performance at Conservatory of Music of Puerto Rico.

Tuesday

Instituto de Cultura Puertorriqueña (ICP)
The mission of ICP is to research, preserve, promote and disseminate Puerto Rican culture in its diversity and complexity.

Bartol Foundation
Advocates for and facilitates partnerships that include arts as an asset for positive youth development and vibrant communities.

Museo de Las Américas
Offers lively and relevant educational programming that emphasizes the cultural heritage of Puerto Rico and the Americas, with a firm commitment to the community.

El Morro
A 16th-century Spanish fortress located in San Juan, Puerto Rico, and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site managed by the National Park Service.

Wednesday

Museo de Arte de Puerto Rico
Showcases an extensive collection of Puerto Rican and Caribbean art and supports programs that foster community engagement.

Música 100 x 35
Modeled on the foundations of El Sistema, Música 100 x 35 offers youth access to orchestral training and social development through music.

Andanza
Andanza blends contemporary dance with outreach, providing opportunities for children and communities to experience movement as art.

Youth Playwriting Contest
ICP's newly launched playwriting contest for high school students from all seven regions across Puerto Rico.

Mauro Ballet
Mauro Ballet is dedicated to developing professional ballet dancers while promoting the healing power of dance within communities.

Fundación Cortés
Committed to the social and cultural well-being of the Caribbean, as well as the interest and appreciation for art that has transcended its generations

Thursday